

Laurelle's Musings

Last week was a particularly enjoyable and interesting meeting, complete with our three current Tertiary Scholars Liam, Elizabeth and Calum, Heather Gow-Carey fresh from her two weeks at NYSF and six weeks or so in Denmark through Scouts, a few visiting Rotarians and guests.

Our visiting Rotarians were our esteemed AG Phil Armstrong, Brian and Merilee Webster from Tony's old club Cowra, our regular annual visitor Marion Van de Linde from the RC of Dunstable Downs in England (visiting his daughter at Dalmeny) and guests Sue Fahey, Peter Gow (father of Heather), Julie Phelps (mother of Liam), Paul and Ann Smith (guests of Chris').

Well done Bob with your three-minuter, Phil for your excellent and appropriate quiz, and Marilyn for your ever reliable chooks.

Heather has gained so much confidence and experience over the last year, what with her experience as MD of the national award winning company Yabra, in Denmark, and at NYSF. Interesting to hear she is now thinking of a career in environmental engineering. She has a huge future ahead of her and it is pleasing to note we have had a little input into that.

In this issue is a summary of the last Board meeting.

Tonight I know everyone will be looking forward to hearing from Angie during the customary 'This is My Life' when new members tell us a little more about themselves. We have been remiss in not getting up Angie up earlier, but Angie has learnt by now we are a kind audience.

Don't forget next Thursday is a barbecue at Jeremy's and Heather's. Make sure you know what it is you said you would bring so we don't end up with 10 potato salads!

Enjoy your evening.
Laurelle

This month in Rotary history: Rotary's anniversary

During the first Rotary club meeting Paul Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Hiram Shorey, and Silvester Schiele met to talk about their personal experiences. Harris then unfolded his general plan for their club meetings.

This was the simple beginning of the world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago. It was created because of Harris' wish to capture in a professional club the same friendly spirit he had felt in the small towns of his youth. The Rotary name derived from the early practice of rotating meetings among members' offices.

Rotarians continue to take pride in their history. In honor of that first club, Rotarians have preserved its original meeting place, Room 711 in Chicago's Unity Building, by re-creating the office as it existed in 1905. For several years, the Paul Harris 711 Club maintained the room as a shrine for visiting Rotarians. In 1989, when the building was scheduled to be demolished, the club carefully dismantled the office and salvaged the interior, including doors and radiators. In 1993, the RI Board of Directors set aside a permanent home for the restored Room 711 at RI World Headquarters in the Chicago suburb of Evanston.

The Foundation Snippet

Thirty-year-old polio survivor Gautam Lewis of London travelled to his birth[place in India last November to help Rotarians in the mass immunisation some 75 million children under the age of five against polio.

Born on Kolkata in 1977, Lewis was abandoned by his mother at the age of eighteen months after he contracted polio. He was taken to Mother Theresa's Missionaries of Charity where, after five years of rehabilitation, he became the ward of Dr Patricia Lewis and was later adopted by her. They moved to London in 1986. There he has worked in the music industry and has managed many high profile bands.

Still dependent on crutches from his battle with polio, Lewis is in a strong position to sympathise and fight the disease. He hopes to inspire those who have been battling polio for years by highlighting with dignity achievements that are possible in the face of adversity.

Attendance Matters

Ted reports that the average attendance for January was 72%

Funny Side

With thanks to Fred Doctor

A distinguished young woman on a flight from Ireland asked the Priest beside her, "Father, may I ask a favour?"

"Of course my child. What may I do for you?"

"Well, I bought an expensive woman's electronic hair dryer for my mother's birthday that is unopened and well over the Customs limits, and I'm afraid they'll confiscate it. Is there any way you could carry it through Customs for me? Under your robes perhaps?"

The priest answered: "I would love to help you, dear, but I must warn you: I will not lie."

"With your honest face, Father, no one will question you"

When they got to Customs, she let the priest go ahead of her.

The official asked, "Father, do you have anything to declare?"

"From the top of my head down to my waist, I have nothing to declare."

The official thought this answer strange, so asked, "And what do you have to declare from your waist to the floor?"

"I have a marvellous instrument designed to be used on a woman, but which is, to date, unused."

Roaring with laughter, the official said, "Go ahead, Father. Next!"

Growing Old

A reporter interviewing a 104 –year old woman asked:
“And what do you think is the best thing about being 104?”
“No peer pressure,” she replied.

Growing old gracefully:
“My memory’s not as sharp as it used to be.
Also, my memory’s not as sharp as it used to be”

Remember:
Don’t let ageing get you down.
It’s too hard to get back up.

Remember:
You don’t stop laughing because you grow old.
You grow old because you stop laughing.

You know you are growing old when:
Everything hurts – what doesn’t hurt, doesn’t work.

You know you are growing old when:
The gleam in your eye is only the sun shining on your bi-focals.

You know you are growing old when:
You feel like the morning after - but you haven’t been anywhere.

You know you are growing old when:
Your knees buckle but you’re belt won’t.

You know you are growing old when:
Your back goes out more than you do.

You know you are growing old when:
You are turning out the lights for economic rather than romantic reasons.

You know you are growing old when:
You ask your son for your car keys.
