BUS WILL TAKE US SO
WE CAN RELAX. HAVE
SOME NUMBERS NEED
MORE $10 PER HEAD.

- 6.30 for 7pm at Moruya Bowling Club...
- Teams of eight... no guest speakers.
- Just dinner then we win the quiz.
- BRING 10 FRIENDS -
- Need final numbers by Monday.

Markets are coming around soon and we need to know who will be doing what!!! Please put your hand up this week as next week is a bit busy. Jack has taken on the role of Secretary, much to my delight. Merinda will take the minutes at the Board Meetings. Thank you to both.

Following the disaster in Japan our (Rotary) funds are again being needed for a most worthwhile cause. If you would like to donate to the District Disaster fund please see Pres Bob for account details. This has been a most trying time and it makes us appreciate our wonderful South Coast even more.... see page 3

INTERNATIONAL TOAST:

Rotary Club of Portland, Oregon. USA, Dist. 5100

Chartered in 1910, the club has 309 members.

Meets on Tuesdays for lunch at 12 noon at the Governor Hotel.

“Racecourses are a sunny place for shady characters.”

Oscar Wilde, quoted in the Sun- Herald.

Short words from bob ant

“It’s amazing that the amount of news that happens in the world every day just exactly fits the newspaper” says Jerry Seinfeld. These last few weeks have needed very large newspapers to tell just a fraction of the story as Mother Nature has attacked the mighty efforts of humankind.

I’m always amazed at the resilience of ordinary people who, when pushed, rise to the occasion and produce amazing feats of courage.

As a press photographer, I became used to the horrible things that could happen to a person. However, as hardened as I became to such sights, I always found that compassion and friendship (mateship) would shine during the darkest hours.

Ordinary people just doing the right thing make a huge difference to individuals who are vulnerable. They reach out with a smile and reassuring hand.

Organisations such as Rotary do this. We pray, we send help and above all we are here for those in need.

As a member of this world wide community, the Rotarians in New Zealand, Japan and Queensland know that they are part of an International Family that is not only looking out for them but ready to support in any way.

I’m proud to be in Rotary and for what we stand for and do, thank you for being part of the family.

Y I R bob Ant... ☺

QUICK QUIZ....

STOP PRESS....

Never let prepositions muddle you. I give you this as a warning.

Child: I want to be read to.

Nurse: What book do you want to be read out of?

Child: Robinson Crusoe.

(Nurse goes and returns with a copy of The Swiss Family Robinson.)

Child: What did you bring me that book to be read to out of from for?

Chris helps Angie's Granddaughter last Thursday

A young Scottish lad and lass were sitting on a low stone wall, holding hands, gazing out over the loch. For several minutes they sat silently. Then finally the girl looked at the boy and said, "A penny for your thoughts, Angus."

"Well, uh, I was thinkin'... perhaps it's about time for a wee kiss."

The girl blushed, then leaned over and kissed him lightly on the cheek. Then he blushed. The two turned once again to gaze out over the loch.

Minutes passed and the girl spoke again. "Another penny for your thoughts Angus."

"Well, uh, I was thinkin' perhaps it's about time for a wee cuddle."

The girl blushed, then leaned over and cuddled him for a few seconds. Then he blushed. And the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch.

After a while, she again said, "Another penny for your thoughts, Angus..."

"Well, uh, I was thinkin' perhaps its about time you let me put my hand on your leg."

The girl blushed, then took his hand and put it on her knee.

Then he blushed.

Then the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch before the girl spoke again.

"Another penny for your thoughts, Angus."

The young man glanced down with a furled brow. "Well, noo," he said, "My thoughts are a wee bit more serious this time."

"Really?" said the lass in a whisper, filled with anticipation.

"Aye," said the lad, nodding.

The girl looked away in shyness, began to blush and bit her lip in anticipation of the ultimate request.

Then he said, "Dae ye nae think it's about time ye paid me the first three pennies?"
