It was wonderful to have ADG Maureen share our meeting and to catch up with her and Steve.

Welcome to the club

Welcome to Charmaine White. Our Club needs more members who are ready to roll up their sleeves and work towards building communities and bridging continents - true Rotarians.

Thank you Charmaine, for joining us and bringing your Rotary Knowledge and enthusiasm from Queensland to beautiful Narooma.

All in fun for a good cause

Short words from bob ant

This weekend changed very rapidly for me and I had to race to Canberra leaving my wonderful wife Merinda to be me for the weekend. Merinda joined with Kris and Laurelle to make sure that our Markets worked.

I thank you and to all the others who helped. I believe George was "Chef extraordinaire" on the BBQ.

The figures were excellent and I will talk about this and our donation to Rotary Mental Health at tonight's meeting.

Sorry the Beacon is late but I'm still catching up. Thank you all for your support.

Thumbs up for RYPEN

By Laurelle Pacey

"Inspirational Speakers!" and "Awesome people!" was how two Narooma High School students described their time at the RYPEN weekend camp in Mogo earlier this month. Megan Creed and Jake Saly were nominated by the school to take part in the personal development camp which brought students aged 14 to 17 together from all over South East NSW and the ACT.

By President Bob

Jake and Meagan not only enjoyed meeting most of the 62 students but the benefit of the camp showed as they stood and talked with us at the meeting on Thursday. Their parents were very proud to see the confidence boost to these fine young, future Rotarians.

STOP PRESS....

- ☺ The Irish have solved their own fuel problems – they imported 50 million tonnes of sand from the Arabs and they're going to drill for their own oil.

- ☺ My mate's missus left him last Thursday; she said she was going out for a pint of milk and never come back! I asked him how he was coping and he said, "Not bad, I've been using that powdered stuff."

- ☺ Two Irishmen find a mirror in the road. The first one picks it up and says, "Blow me down, I know this face but I can't put a name to it." The second picks it up and says, "You daft buggar, it's me!"

- ☺ Paddy's in jail. The Guard looks in his cell and see's him hanging by his feet. "What are you doing?"he asks. "Hanging myself, "Paddy replies. "It should be round your neck, "says the guard."I tried that, "says Paddy,

"but I couldn't breathe."

With thanks to Charmaine

Mad Hatters enjoying the moment

John (as an Oyster Chef) and Rolf (Cat in the Hat impersonator) getting into the spirit.

George, Lin, Maureen and Bob hats all round.

ADG Maureen and Merinda... Ladies in Red

Ryphen Student Jake and his Mother and Grandmother joined in the fun.

*The police came to my front door last night holding a picture of my wife.
They said, "Is this your wife, sir?"
Shocked, I answered, "Yes."
They said, "I'm afraid it looks like she's been hit by a bus."
I said, "I know, but she has a lovely personality."*
