The Week That Was

Well folks despite coming second we actually won the Cinders Trophy! Well done team.

Although a Moruya table scored more points than anyone else the Narooma tables came in 2nd 3rd and 4th so we won because we had a better average!!

Thanks to the Moruya Club for their excellent organisation and great fellowship.

And stealing from the Moruya Bulletin

As the shield shows, our first Cinders was sixteen years ago. The name was the brainchild of the late Paul Raynor, a cricket tragic. The trophy itself was reduced to cinders in a fire at the Lasallian Centre, Narooma's then meeting place, a few years later. Narooma replaced it with the present impressive shield.

Tonight

Because tonight's meeting falls on ANZAC day we will be served a buffet meal at the Whale. Laurelle has arranged for Ben Potter to speak for 10 minutes or so on what's happening with Eurobodalla Youth Week. There will be a Board meeting after the formal meeting closes. Please note there will not be a three minute talk this week.

We will also remember those many Army, Navy and Air force personnel who gave so much so that we can live a free and prosperous life.

Getting Old

Three older ladies were discussing the trials of getting older. One said, “Sometimes I catch myself with a jar of mayonnaise in my hand in front of the refrigerator and can’t remember whether I need to put it away, or start making a sandwich.” The second Lady chimed in, “Yes, sometimes I find myself on the landing of the stairs and can’t remember whether I was on my way up or on my way down.” The third one responded, “Well, I’m glad I don’t have that problem, knock on wood,” as she rapped her knuckles on the table. Then she said, “That must be the door..... I’ll get it!”
